GREAT DAY FOR FAVORITES

PUBLIC CHOICES TAKE FIVE PURSES AT MONCRIEF PARK.

Success of Schorr Stable Continues, with Planutess and Aylmer the Mediums—Florida Track Enjoying Ideal Weather.

Jacksonville, Fla., December 16.—The students of form gave the layers at Moncrief a drubbing today. The feature of the sport was the success of the public choices. Five of the six purses were won by heavily-backed favorites and there was little to choose between Aylmer and Sandrian in the selling handicap, the feature race of the card, the winner being quoted at 8 to 5 and the other at 17 to 10. The Schorr stable was successful with Planutess in the third and Aylmer in the fourth. The elder Schorr reached here from Memphis on Wednesday and since his arrival his horses have won four races. The breeders' purse, which was run as the opening race, went to Marie Hyde.

The victory of Planutess came only after an exciting finish in which she beat the fast-closing Deceivable a neck. The racing conditions were as nearly perfect as possible, the weather being warm and balmy, while the track was firm and fast. Five of the six races were with selling conditions, but there was no bidding up.

Ben Darr was an arrival from San Francisco. He arrived this morning and will remain for the rest of the meeting. Col. Bob Holloway is due from Kentucky next week. He is coming south to spend the winter at his Florida home at Green Cove Springs, a suburb of Jacksonville, and will be a daily visitor at Moncrief.

Firewood was ineligible to start in the third race and was not carded. Planutess, winner of the race, picked up a six-pound penalty for having won the first race yesterday.

W. P. Burch received a cablegram from his son Preston yesterday to the effect that the latter had won another stake in France with Merry Knight. Young Burch has won four races since his arrival on the other side, two of them being stakes. He took over six horses and recently added five French-bred horses to his string. O'Leary rode Merry Knight in his recent victory.

Frank Van Ness, who raced Morello and India Rubber in this country, is now located in France, where he was prospering as a veterinary dentist.

RACING GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

New York, December 16.—The roads leading to the Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay tracks are now snowbound.

W. H. Karrick is well fixed for the winter months with the Oneck Stable. He has the use of the infield of the yearling track for his paddocks and a dozen nicely picked yearlings scamper in them every day. Harry K. Knapp owns eight of the dozen and F. R. Hitchcock four.

The Knapp or Oneck Stable's coming two-year-olds include a bay colt by Yankee—Graceful, a bay colt by Voter—Kiamesha, a chestnut colt by Ogden—Whyota, a bay colt by Sempronius—Pickle, a half-sister to Blackfoot by Ogden—Tepee, a bay filly by Waterboy—Fairy Queen, a bay filly by Adam—Renown and a brown filly by Knight of the Thistle—Happy.

F. R. Hitchcock has the following coming two-year-olds in trainer Karrick's charge: Roan colt by Plaudit—Phantom Belle, bay colt by Yankee—Smoke, chestnut colt by Cesarion—Elsie B. and a bay filly by Ogden—Tangle.

Mr. Karrick has Blackfoot, Petronius and Fashion Plate up and doing shed work every day. His quarters are of the best, being in the old Joyner stable, where the ride is an eighth of a mile around.

San Francisco, Cal., December 16.—Molesey, the heavily-backed closing favorite, won the mile and a quarter race at Oakland today in a drive with Belleview. Buckthorn opened first choice, but receded owing to the support accorded to Molesey and Merlingo. After Merlingo and Colonel Jack had made the pace and quit, Belleview assumed command, but Molesey passed him in the final sixteenth.

Jockey Garner piloted two winners. After landing Molesey first, he rode Dahlgren to victory in the succeeding race. Outsiders figured prominently during the afternoon. Canique and Busy Man were long shots to lead their fields home. Ossabar beat Abe Slupskey and Doride, both of which were at long odds, in the two-year-old race.

W. Murphy bid up Ossabar from $500 to $705, but the colt was retained by trainer Blakeley for "Chicago" O'Brien.

A. Koenigsberg was barred from the track today for using abusive language to George Rose because he refused to accept a wager yesterday.

Earl Linnell denies that he has any intention of transferring his stable to Juarez and taking jockey Guy Garner with him.

JUAREZ PROGRAM DECLARED OFF.

Dangerous Condition of Course Leads to Omission of One Day's Racing.

El Paso, Tex., December 16.—Owing to the dangerous condition of the track at Terrazas Park, it was considered unsafe to allow the horses to run over it and accordingly this afternoon's card was declared off. The entries scheduled for this afternoon were nullified and horsemen were asked to make new entries for tomorrow, when it is expected the track will be in safe condition. Heavy rain during the night rendered the track deep and sticky and the opinion was generally expressed that the management had acted wisely in closing the track for today.

A shipment of horses arrived today from Oakland, including the stables of Stuart Polk, John Lowe, C. Emmert, N. K. Moody and W. H. Denny.

General Manager Matt Winn is due to return from California tomorrow, a telegram to that effect having been received today.

WHITNEY STABLE EARNINGS IN ENGLAND.

That Harry Payne Whitney's horses raced with distinction in England this year is well known, their success being a source of satisfaction in this country. With three exceptions the contributors to the good fortune of the stable were bred in this country, the exceptions being the Persimmon—Dame d'Or colt and Sand Glass, both bought in England at sales of yearlings, and the filly First Flight, which was bid up and bought by trainer Joyner for the stable after she had beaten the Adam—Belle of Troy filly in the Waterloo Selling Nursery Handicap at Kempton Park last September. She is a speedy filly and in afterwards winning the Orleans Nursery Handicap at Sandown Park gave proof that she is likely to prove a profitable purchase. As much can hardly be said for the Dame d'Or colt, although he may improve into a good three-year-old. He cost Mr. Whitney $13,000 as a yearling and his only success was in winning the Tattersall Sale Stakes at the Doncaster September meeting.

The star winners of the stable were the crack Hamburg two-year-olds Borrow and Lady Frivoles filly and the three-year-olds Whisk Broom and New Castle. All were raced against the highest class of their ages and acquitted themselves creditably. In winning the Middle Park Plate Borrow captured the principal event that fell to the stable and defeated two of the supposed best English two-year-olds of the year in Seaforth and Pietri. In addition he won six other stake races, particulars having already been detailed in Daily Racing Form. The Hamburg—Lady Frivoles filly ran four times and won the Fitzwilliam Stakes at the Newmarket Craven meeting, the Wilbraham Plate at the Newmarket First Spring meeting, the Mersey Stakes at the Liverpool July meeting and ran the crack St. Nat to a half length for the Fifth-third Biennial Stakes at Ascot. New Castle won the All Aged Stakes at Ascot, Beaufort Handicap at the Newmarket Second July meeting and the Coventry Plate at Kempton Park and was but once unplaced in twelve races. Whisk Broom won the Trial Stakes at Ascot and the Select Stakes at the Newmarket Second October meeting, was third to Neil Gow and Lemberg for the Two Thousand Guineas and all around was rated a high-class three-year-old. A split hoof kept him from meeting some important engagements. He is a colt of great speed and beauty and likely to distinguish himself further in 1911.

The Whitney stable earnings here published are somewhat in excess of those published in England. There only first money is counted, but Whisk Broom won $1,000 for his third in the Guineas and other place money. Borrow won $1,000 in two seconds and the Lady Frivoles filly took over $800 for her second to St. Nat, while New Castle won $1,000 in second money. These sums are included in the following detailed particulars of the Whitney stable winnings:

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

T. W. D., Chicago. Lady Esther was 3 to 5 to show.

T. McG., Brookfield, Mo. At Pensacola Tuesday, December 6, and ran last.

H. S., St. Louis, Mo. You will have to study their riding closely and form your own estimates.

G. E. C., Buffalo, N. Y. In her winning race at Fort Erie July 10, 1909, Meadow opened at 5 to 1 and closed at 3½ to 1.

P. McL., St. Louis, Mo. Presuming the "if coming" bets were of the same sum as the Tom Hayward bet you should have received $15.50.

Enquirer, Louisville, Ky. No replies by mail. The parlay should be divided in proportion to the money each had invested, one being as much entitled to the proceeds as the other.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John Mullins, who raced the good horse Badge some twenty years ago, is seen in New York occasionally.

The report comes from Cincinnati that the condition of Lyman Davis, racing secretary of the Empire City Racing Association, New Louisville Jockey Club and Jockey Club Juarez, has not materially improved since his return to his home in Covington following a nervous breakdown at Juarez.

GENTLEMEN RIDERS DON COLORS.

Pensacola, Fla., December 16.—Ladies' day and a race for gentlemen riders brought increased attendance at Kupfrian Park this afternoon. Bensonhurst, ridden by Mr. White, scored in the feature. The racing was spirited. The victory of Heart of Hyacinth gave the books a good break and enabled them to win well on the afternoon's transactions. After Lord Nelson's victory he was bid up to $300, an advance of $100 over his entered price and bought by J. Schneitter. The run-up came in retaliation for Evans having bid on Percy Taylor. The latter's owner failed to submit an affidavit supporting his charge of intimidation against Evans and unless he does so tomorrow, the judges will probably fine him for making a frivolous complaint.

Winner—B. f. by Blues—Lineage (trained by J. O. Holder).

Went to post at 2:36. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. TIPPY showed a fine turn of early speed and, going into a long lead while rounding the far turn, was only cantering at the end. MORNING SONG worked her way up on the outside in the first quarter and outstayed the tiring MINDINETTE when it came to a drive. The latter showed speed, but probably was short, as she tired when called on. GAVOTTE ran fairly well only. AVIATOR was crowded out at the start. AGNAR closed a big gap. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

PLANUTESS followed MONTY FOX closely to the stretch turn, then moved up rapidly and, standing a drive gamely after having disposed of the pacemaker, just lasted long enough to win. DECEIVABLE ran well, but swerved to the outside after entering the homestretch, then closed up with a rush when his rider straightened him out. SPES NOSTRA finished well and outstayed the tiring MONTY FOX. The latter set a fast pace, but quit. THE WHIP began slowly and was repeatedly interfered with. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

AYLMER began slowly and was outrun for the first half, then worked his way up on the inside on the far turn and was bumped by RAGMAN a couple of times after entering the homestretch, but drew away with a rush in the last furlong. SANDRIAN outbroke the others and set the pace for seven furlongs, but tired quickly when challenged. RAGMAN ran well to the stretch, but quit in the final drive and can do much better. Winner—Ch. g, by Fatherless—Mermaid (trained by J. Gass).

Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. MERMAN broke fast from the inside and, drawing away into an easy lead on the first turn, set the pace to the end, but was tiring and had to be ridden out to outstay THIRD RAIL. The latter was bumped in the first quarter, but finished fast and easily disposed of CAMEL. The latter ran under slight restraint to the stretch turn, but tired quickly when called on. BANBURY finished fast. NORBITT quit in the last quarter after running well to the stretch. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—93303² Harvey F., 106; 93240 El Oro, 112.

OKLAHOMA DECISION ON BETTING.

Guthrie, Okla., December 16.—In an opinion by Presiding Justice Henry M. Furman, the State Criminal Court of Appeals holds that betting on a horse race is gaming within the Oklahoma law and that if any person opens or conducts a house, room or place where the public is invited to assemble or by means of any device, plan or scheme, bet or lay wagers upon the results of horse races, such persons are guilty of violating the laws of Oklahoma. The opinion affirms the conviction of C. S. Hilswick, Ollie James and E. P. James of El Reno and their sentence of thirty days in jail and fines for bookmaking in a turf exchange.
